YOUTH BREAK THE BOUNDARIES

Youth Break the Boundaries (YBB) is a non-Governmental Organization (NGO) that focuses in all instruments regarding development and empowerment of the youth to prepare excellent future leaders by promoting strong identity and character and also providing noble values for the youth.

In order to achieve consistency in building the youth character, YBB continues to create various innovations in youth activities. Since 2017, YBB has held an International Youth Summit entitled "Youth Education and Entrepreneurship Summit (YES!)" In Istanbul and continues with a warm theme among young people on The 5th Istanbul Youth Summit.

The focus of YBB on The 5th Istanbul Youth Summit program is to transfer ideas, knowledge and urgency to young people regarding development plans during the crisis recovery period. It is undeniable that the global crisis experienced by all levels of the world has caused many losses, especially in the field of health and development. Through this program, we will learn about the design of development strategies that can be implemented as a form of crisis recovery. Not only that, but the selected youths will also learn many things from various countries' perspectives, which will greatly help strengthen networks around the world.

Our Vision

Realizing young generation who have good spiritual, intellectual, emotional integrity, and are able to develop their potential to answer the challenges of global life in all fields to contribute in building the nation together.

Our Mission

- Improve Professionalism, capability, and reliable human.
- Resources in terms of managing the organization creating networks and sensitive to any social media that occur in the community.
- Prioritize an independent family principle and able to create youth cadres who are ready to compete according to their period.

The 5th Istanbul Youth Summit

OVERVIEW

The 5th Istanbul Youth Summit is the fifth International summit organized by Youth Break the Boundaries (YBB) foundation in Istanbul. This summit will encourage future leaders who break the boundaries of their abilities to discuss and take action in "Development Responses Plan of the Youth in Crisis Recovery " with five sub themes : Economy, Education, Public Policy, Public Health and Mental Health. With this theme, Istanbul Youth Summit also encourages young people from all backgrounds and sectors to collaborate together and utilize their leadership capabilities in facing the crisis.

It's been one year since the world has faced the same crisis. The COVID-19 Pandemic has made all citizens of the world from various sectors suffer especially in the field of health and development. A decline and deprived economy, education that is not optimal, inadequate public health, increasingly people dealing with mental health (trauma, anxiety, depression), conflict and ineffective public policy. Youth Break the Boundaries presents a forum where all youths are required to develop a plan in order to recover from the crises that occurred in the form of leadership in their respective fields and equipped with qualified speakers as well as panel discussion and various social projects.

Moreover, as the tagline Collaboration in Diversity, delegates of IYS are expected to gain so much more than just networking, as IYS is open to all youths from various backgrounds and culture, achieving the goal of IYS with so much knowledge and experiences will have a great impact to the international community.
